

Crocodile in Australia

One morning,
I was working next-to a river in the Australia,
when I saw a australian girl in the river.
She was swimming and screaming.
I jumped , with a big "bang", in the cold water.
But a big crocodile was biting the girl and wanted to eat the leg of its victim !
I caught the girl and swam towards the riverside .
The girl was scared but saved, I was too.

BANG

She said:
"Oh, you are a hero !"
