

Australia

One day, in Australia, I was very happy there was a beautiful landscape! It was ten o'clock and I was walking in a forest when I met a koala. It was quickly climbing in a tree to sleep when suddenly I heard a shriek.

I ran, I saw a tourist had fallen because a spider was next to the tourist. The spider was big and was eating a grasshopper. I heard a bird laughing. The bird was small and beautiful. The week was fabulous! That was fun!

aaaaaaahh!!!
