

My Australian adventure

The last week, in the afternoon, I was walking in a forest , a beautiful forest , I was very happy ,when I fell in the bush , because I stumbled on something. An Australian boy, very strong, was running , and he tried to help me stand up. But -just naturally-I took his hand and,... but I don't know why , -hum- he fell with me ! And the scariest thing ,we heard a scary noise ,and and here ,a big and grumpy crocodile went out the bush !But ,I am very brave - yes, really - and I took a very big stick and I put it in the enormous mouth of the crocodile ! And he left the bush .The Australian boy was surprised !
