

I walking in the forest
and whistling without scaring animals.
Suddenly I saw a beautiful snake asleep
on the tree.

Oh it was very beautiful !
I approached.
And I touched the snake.
The snake looked at me
in the eyes and bit my hand!

-Oh ! That really hurt!
A ranger came to see
and scolded me!
-You mustn't touch
animals, they may bite
You could just take
photos.
The snake was not
dangerous for me :
I went back home and
cured my hand.
