

ONE DAY LIKE THE OTHERS

One day, a big, nice and clever tourist was easily walking in the forest when he saw a koala, a small, very cute one, which was on the trunk of a big tree full of leaves. The tourist was taking a photos of nature and animals when suddenly ...
BAANG! The tourist turned round and he saw the koala down! It had fallen off its tree. It went up immediately back up to the top of its branch.

It was really very funny!!
